Practice Quiz

TOTAL POINTS 2

1. On the Data Analyst Specialist path, you could be starting your career as an Associate or Junior Data Analyst and working your way up to a Principal Analyst role. What are some of the factors that influence your growth on this path?

1 / 1 point

- ☒ The experience and exposure you gain in the different areas within Data Analysis
- ☐ At least five to six years of experience at each level
- ☐ A Master's degree in either Mathematics or Statistics
- ☐ Specialization in at least one domain area

✓ Correct

The amount of experience you gain and exposure to different areas within Data Analysis qualifies you for the next role on this path.

2. Skills such as problem-solving, communication, and storytelling are critical to the role of a Data Analyst. And like most soft skills, you're either good at them, or you're not; these skills cannot be acquired over time.
